

Structure and Function in Living Systems

Seed Plant Structures

In the space below, draw a seed plant so the function boxes point to each of its parts. Fill out the boxes with the function(s) of that particular structure. You can use Chapter 12, Section 4 to help you.

Name:

Period:

leaf function:

flower function:

- FUNCTIONS
- absorb water and minerals from the soil
 - hold plant in soil
 - make food for the plant
 - sometimes used to store materials
 - store extra food made during photosynthesis
 - support plant body
 - transport materials between roots and leaves
 - used for sexual reproduction

stem functions:

-
-
-

root functions:

-
-
-